CLASSIFICAT

IGENCE AGENCY

et/control - u. s. officials only REPORT NO.

CD NO.

COUNTRY

China

Political Information: Nationalist Strategy of

Delay in Peace Negotiations

INFORMATION

NO. OF PAGES 1

25X1X6

8 February 1949 - .

PLACE ACQUIRED

STATE

ARMY

SUBJECT

DATE OF INF

25X1A6a

NO. OF ENCLS.

DATE DISTR.

25X1X6

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. LI Tsung-jen's peace mission is merely to stall for time, as the Kuomintang

- cannot accept MAO Tse-tung's first point (punishment of "war criminals") in the peace proposal, and time is essential for an attempt to unify what remains of Kuomintang resistance.
- 2. Nanking and Shanghai will be defended. As the situation worsens, some military leader will inevitably come forward to take command. This will not be LI Tsung-jen. (Source Comment. The official quoted evaded the question as to whether or not this would be the Generalissimo.)
- 3. Kwangsi Clique members and non-Kwangsi Kucmintang military personnel need one another's support to withstand Chinese Communist military advances. Although TANG En-po, Nanking-Shanghai-Hangchow area commander, is a CHIANG Kai-shek man, he must cooperate with LI Tsung-jen and the Kwangsi Clique.
- 4. SUN Fo and WU Tieh-cheng are in Canton now only to complete arrangements in government offices and will return to Nanking in a few days, as the plan is to have the bulk of the main government offices in Canton, with Nanking and Shanghai as advance government headquarters.

5. CHANG Chih-chung's trip to the Northwest was not only to negotiate a special treaty for Sinkiang and the USSR, but also to enlist the support of the MA family and HU Tsung-nan.

document is hereby regraded to AL in accordance with the letter of ober 1978 from the Director of Contrar Archivist of the United olligence to the Next Review Date: 2008

CLASSIFICATION SECNTI/CONTROL - U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY X NAVY X AR X FBI DISTRIBUTION LISTING MUST